

From the Pastor July 30, 2017

In 1971 I became pastor of our church. Many miles have been traveled and many smiles enjoyed. Many fears and tears have been experienced. There have been many ups and downs along the way. I am humbled and thankful today for the privilege that has been mine for these many years.

I'm thinking today of the precious folks who have already completed their journey and are now in Heaven. We have dear friends and loved ones over there. May we keep going and keep serving our wonderful Lord until our time comes to a climax here and we wake up in Glory.

We are thankful for the men that were able to attend the men's retreat in West Virginia.

SUPPORT our Christian school with the "Scrip" program. See Angel Emerson or Paul Cahoon for details.

PRAY for the purchase of a newer van. Both of our vans are in need of replacement.

Preparations for the 2017-18 FAITH CHRISTIAN ACADEMY AND FAITH NURSERY SCHOOL year are being readied. Prayerfully consider enrolling your child for this coming year for a Biblical and Christ-centered education. Pray for God to meet every need for both our academy and nursery school.

THEME: JEHOVAH NISSI...The LORD is our Banner

We begin the new emphasis next Sunday. May we dedicate afresh to march under the Banner of the Lord.

These are crucial days. May we truly be soldiers in the Lord's army.

PRAY for our missionaries around the world. Give to Faith Promise. This is our program to send financial support. May God bless you.
