

From the Pastor

June 13, 2021

We invite those who have voiced a desire to be baptized to meet for instructions at 5:30 this afternoon in the choir room. Everything you need for baptism is furnished.

Jesus came to identify with mankind through the virgin birth. Thank God He did! When a person is baptized he is identifying with Christ's death, burial, and resurrection.

Baptism is an act of OBEDIENCE. It is saying, "Lord, I love You, and I am not ashamed of You." Baptism does not save a person but displays publicly the desire to live the Christian life. Pray for those who are baptized tonight.

June 20th is FATHER'S DAY, and we have two gifts for each "dear old dad" on that Sunday. It would be wonderful to honor our Heavenly Father with many earthly "fathers" being present. We are looking forward to this special day.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR for our God & Country Day. We will celebrate it on June 27th during the Sunday evening service. Wear your patriotic colors, and come with a heart thankful for God's blessings on America. Special gifts are awaiting each VET. Hear a message from God's Word.

Pastor needs to meet with the ADVISORY BOARD and their wives in the choir room immediately after tonight's service.

Our LADIES RETREAT is scheduled for September 10th-11th with Linda Wilkerson and Wendy Burks. The theme is FLOURISH! Registration brochures are now available in the foyer. Please make plans to join us for this special time!!!
