

Mother's Day is a wonderful date on the calendar to give special recognition to those who wear the title of "MOTHER." Many lives have been touched for time and eternity because of praying moms. We rejoice with the moms who are still with us on Earth, and we rejoice for those moms who were believers and now reside in the Glory World!

Moms wear many hats, and we salute each of you today. Below is a brief thought from a caring mom who was concerned about her only son going off to college. She wrote the following letter to the college president:

"Dear Sir:

My son has been accepted for admission to your college and will soon be leaving me. I am writing to ask that you give your personal attention to the selection of his roommate.

I want to be sure that his roommate is not the kind of person who uses foul language or tells off-color jokes, smokes, drinks, or chases after girls.

I hope you understand why I am appealing to you directly. You see, this is the first time my son will be away from me, except for his three years in the Marine Corps."

Only a MOM would be concerned about this matter.
