

From the Pastor

November 20, 2022

Praise the Lord for our Missions Conference that began last Sunday. JOY TO THE WORLD: WON BY ONE is our theme this year.

Please welcome Dr. Don Sisk and the Kyle Shreve family who are joining us today as we continue our emphasis. Bro. Sisk will speak during the Sunday School hour (combined class of 5th grade and up) and for both the morning and evening services. Bro. Shreve will give a testimony during the evening service, and he and Bro. Caleb Cajuat will be speaking Monday night.

TUESDAY evening will be our last service of the missions conference for this year. Pastor Pauley will be speaking. June Jarleleza will give greetings from the Philippines by way of video. Please bring your Joy to the World booklet with you.

Open your heart to the challenge of being INVOLVED in worldwide missions.

KIDS Christmas play practice this afternoon at 5:00.

Christmas Play

PRAY about your “joyful” Faith Promise commitment for 2023. Our goal is $1,100 per week or $57,200 for the year.

We are trusting God!

We are THANKFUL for the missions meal last evening that was provided by Reformers Unanimous.

PRAY

PRAY for Allen Morrison. He was in a car wreck, is bruised up, and will be home for a few weeks.
