

Welcome to the Midweek Service!

Faith Baptist Church

November 9, 2022

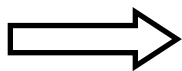

First, we Praise God for the missionaries that we support as a church. Mission is the heart of God and thus should be dear and precious to us. As we begin our Mission Conference, we start even now in SPECIAL PRAYER for the family of Stephen Troell as it has now been reported in the statement from his family.

On Monday, November 7, 2022, Stephen Troell met his Savior face to face. Jocelyn, the girls, and little Stephen are currently safe and will return to the U.S. in the next few days. As you can imagine, these are difficult days for the Troell and Britt family. Please give us time to grieve together as a family. We are grateful for everyone who has reached out to us. Your prayers, love, and kind words have sustained us as God walks with us through the valley of the shadow of death.

Stephen often quoted the words of two Moravian young men who gave their lives for the cause. We echo them again: "May the Lamb that was slain receive the reward of His suffering."

"...weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning" (Psalm 30:5).

UNITED STAND- May we join forces this Sunday as our Mission Conference 2022 begins (See program brochure about schedule.) Our hearts are broken in light of the death of Bro. Stephen. May we ALL be in attendance Sunday in memory of this precious martyr for the FAITH.

All USHERS please be on duty this Sunday and throughout the conference.

WE REJOICE IN THE VICTORIES WON ON ELECTION DAY. KEEP PRAYING FOR A NATIONWIDE SPIRITUAL REVIVAL .
