

From the Pastor

December 1, 2023

Welcome!

Glad you're here.

December has arrived and with that we enjoy the Christmas season. May each of us prayerfully and fervently dedicate ourselves not to get lost in all the activities, but keep our focus on the greatest GIFT ever given. He is called the unspeakable gift.

Wrapped in that package is eternal life. Amen! Let's show our love by talking to our Saviour daily and walking daily that others can see Christ in us, The hope of Glory. It's a good time to pass out gospel tracts and share the JOY of the season. Remember it is HIS birthday, God gave the best HE had. Jesus was willing to "COME" to us that we can Go to heaven. Now may we "GO" and represent HIM!

It is a good time to consider your Faith Promise Giving to Missions. Ask God for the amount and trust HIM to supply the need.

Thank you!

Thankful for our Staff that give of themselves to the Lord in Ministry at Faith Baptist Church!

Our Teens will be going to the MID ATLANTIC YOUTH CONFERENCE at Beacon Baptist Church in Raleigh, NC. December 28-30th. Your Teen needs to be registered today if they would like to go. Registration is done on the Beacon Baptist Church Website. Any Questions see Bro. Tyree or Mrs. Shana Marlowe.

Thank you to those of you who have donated to this cause, anyone else interested in helping out our teens see Bro. Tyree!

Faith Christian Academy Kids 1st-5th Grades were involved in a Coloring Contest in the area. 1st Place was our own- Johanna Anderson 5th grader who won $250. Our Academy won $1,000 as well. Grateful for this activity that has blessed our Academy! Congratulations Johanna, Great Job!!

Please Keep Pastor Clarence Sexton in your Prayers!
Thank you to all who honored the day of Prayer and Fasting!

The Items or money donations for our Shut-In bags need to be given to Mrs. Carole Hurley by December 6th. Check with her to see what is still needed
